

MONTGOMERY'S VOTE.

Byrd Gains 205 Votes in the City of Mt. Sterling Over Vote 1908, but Sustains Loss in County.

Old Montgomery county did herself proud on election day by giving A. Floyd Byrd, Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, the handsome majority of 316. The county vote fell off in several precincts, but the city vote increased the Democratic majority in the county from 166 to 316. This is a splendid compliment to Mr. Byrd and one that Democrats are proud of.

TALK SEVEN.

It is a matter for wonder how many young wives there are who, entirely unknown to their husbands, often think to themselves: "What would become of me if he should die?" She is positive that he has no insurance; and she wouldn't mention the matter to him for the world. But it worries her; and it ought to.

Now, on the other hand, how many young husbands are there who, when they ride down town in the morning, and read in the paper of the unexpected, if not sudden, death of some friend, do not say to themselves: "I wonder if he left his family anything?" Rarely, if ever, does he chafe that question with this one: "Would I have anything to leave if the case was mine?"

The matter doesn't worry him. The wife refrains from ever speaking on the subject. But she keeps on thinking just the same. Finally, one day, he has a thought. It's a good one, the best he ever had, because when a man begins to think he is attacked with the first symptoms of action. Only level-headed men think, and level-headed men want the BEST.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT

Results In The Death of Bright 15-Months Old Baby of Rev. W. J. Bolin.

Robert, the little fifteen-months-old son of Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Bolin met with a serious accident Wednesday while playing at the home of its parents on High St. The little fellow was on the floor playing with some "jacks," a toy for children, when he put one of them in his mouth and swallowed. The toy is a jagged concern of iron, about seven-eighths of an inch in diameter. Fruitless efforts were made by the child's mother to dislodge it, but the toy tore its way through the child's throat and entered the stomach. It was located by X Rays. The suffering of the child was intense and all that medical science could do for him was of no avail and he breathed his last Friday night.

The child's father was at Cadiz, Trigg county, when the accident occurred, but was notified and came at once to the bedside of his suffering little son.

Robert was an exceedingly bright little fellow and was much loved by all who knew him. His father and mother are heart-broken by their loved one being taken from them, but they have their Master's comforting words: "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not for such is the kingdom of Heaven."

We join Rev. and Mrs. Bolin's many friends in extending our deepest sympathy to them in the loss of their loved one.

The funeral services were held at the residence of Rev. Bolin Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. R. Hobbs. The remains were taken to Clinton, Ky., the old home of Mrs. Bolin, for burial.
